	Type of Recruitment Initiative (Menu Selection)	Brief Description of Activity
1.	16	CodComm Inc. provides all contest winners, and any visitors of the stations the opportunity to tour the radio stations and talk with the staff. During this time, careers in broadcasting are discussed and visitors are educated about the broadcasting industry. The tour includes information about how the broadcasting industry strives to serve its local community. Visitors are asked to give their opinions as to what the hottest topics in the local community are.
2.	16	Broadcasted announcements on WFRQ, WHYA, WKFY and WPXC to disseminate EEO information to potential recruitment sources, and to be notified when full time openings occur at CodComm Inc. These announcements were also published on CodComm's website: http://capecodradio.com
3.	7	Participated and sponsored a student in the 2019 Massachusetts Broadcasters Association Student Broadcaster Scholarship program. This program encourages students who are interested in careers in broadcasting to apply for a $2,000 scholarship towards degrees at colleges and universities offering degrees in radio and television broadcasting. The "winning" applicant was chosen after reviewing 25 qualified students.

4.	5	Codcomm Established a paid internship program designed to assist members of the community to acquire skills needed for broadcast employment. Our 3 compensated interns represented UMass Amherst, University of New Hampshire, and Sandwich High School. Scholastic credit was earned for their efforts while employed at CodComm.
5.	4	On November 5, 2019 the Production Director and Morning Show Co-host from CodComm Inc. welcomed students from “Community Connections” of Cape Cod. Students were given a tour of the station facilities and were shown studio equipment and broadcasting skills and techniques, and hints how to break into the business
6.	4	On April 25, 2019 Codcomm’s Station Manager participated and presented as a panelist at the 4 th Annual Dale Dorman Radio and Digital Media Conference at Massasoit Community College in Brockton, MA.
